To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform each essential function satisfactorily. The requirements and qualifications listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill and/or ability required. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

Essential Functions

Develops instructional plans and organizes class time to provide a balanced program of instruction, demonstration, and working time.

Instructs pupils of the knowledge and skills in art, including crafts, drawing, painting, lettering, design, commercial art, art history, and three-dimensional art, following the course of study adopted by the Board of Education, and other appropriate learning activities.

Provides individual and small-group instruction to adapt the curriculum to the needs of pupils with varying artistic abilities, and to accommodate a variety of instructional activities.

Establishes and maintains standards of pupil behavior needed to provide an orderly, safe, and productive environment.

Maintains an auditable daily record of pupil attendance and grades while evaluating each pupil's performance and growth in knowledge and aesthetic understandings, and prepares progress reports.

Instruct pupils in proper care and use of tools and equipment.

Selects and requisitions books, instructional materials, tools, instructional aids, and maintains required inventory records.

Communicates and collaborates effectively with students, teachers, administrators, guidance counselors, and others as needed.

Maintains professional competence through in-service, curriculum and developmental education activities on the school or division level or in self-selected professional growth activities.

Organizes storage areas and controls use of materials, equipment and tools to prevent loss or abuse, and to minimize time required for distribution and collection.

Provides instruction by which pupils develop aesthetic concepts and appreciations and the ability to make qualitative judgments about art.

Demonstrates techniques in activities such as drawing, painting, and modeling, using standard and teacher-prepared instructional aids.

Plans and presents art displays and exhibitions designed to exhibit pupils' work for the school and the community (may include sponsoring exhibits from outside the school).

Collaborates with classroom teachers in order to integrate grade level SOLs into the art curriculum.

Attends staff meetings, serves on staff committees, and sponsors co-curricular clubs as required.
